

Images of Rights – Student Sheet

When you have considered and discussed the images of rights photographs, write your observations below.

Check your observations against the description of each image then identify which of the 4 guiding principles of the Convention of the Rights of the Child (CRC) apply to each image.

The 4 guiding principles of Convention of the Rights of the Child are:

Article 2: All the rights guaranteed by the CRC must be available to all children and young people without discrimination

Article 3: The best interests of the child or young person must always come first

Article 6: All children and young people have the right to life, survival and development

Article 12: The views of children and young people must be considered and taken into account in all matters affecting them
